

Contents

Preface	iii
ii Contents	ix
iii Abbreviations	xi
iv Acknowledgements	xiii
v Introduction	xv

Part one. The role of and support to the family

Chapter 1. The role of informal support in long-term care, Joshua Wiener	3
Chapter 2. The support of carers and their organizations in some northern and western European countries, Marja Pijl	25

Part two. Issues of integration and coordination

Chapter 3. The interface of LTC and other components of the health and social services systems in North America, Robert L. Kane	63
Chapter 4. Long-term care integration in four European countries: a review, Dennis L. Kodner	91
Chapter 5. Achieving coordinated and integrated care among LTC services: the role of care management, David Challis	139

LONG-TERM CARE

Part three. Human resources

Chapter 6. Human resources for long-term care: lessons from the United States experience, Rosalie A. Kane	193
---	-----

Part four. Evaluating long-term care

Chapter 7. Approaches to evaluating LTC systems, Itziar Larizgoitia	227
---	-----

Part five. Choosing overall LTC strategies

Chapter 8. Choosing overall LTC strategies: a conceptual framework for policy development, Jenny Brodsky, Jack Habib, Miriam Hirschfeld, Ben Siegel, Yael Rockoff	245
--	-----