

Contents

|                                                                  |           |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Foreword                                                         | vii       |
| Preface                                                          | ix        |
| Acknowledgements                                                 | xi        |
| Note to readers                                                  | xiii      |
| Introduction                                              | 1  |
| Supportive environments                                          | 2         |
| A toolbox for change                                             | 2         |
| More encyclopaedia than novel                                    | 3         |
| Three new models                                                 | 3         |
| Using the handbook                                               | 4         |
| <hr/>                                                            |           |
| Part 1. Strategies that work                              |           |
| <hr/>                                                            |           |
| Chapter 1 Creating favourable conditions for health       | 7  |
| Chapter 2 Obstacles to achieving supportive environments  | 8  |
| Chapter 3 Learning from experience                        | 11 |
| Policy development                                               | 11        |
| Regulation                                                       | 13        |
| Reorienting organizations                                        | 14        |
| Advocacy                                                         | 16        |
| Building alliances and creating awareness                        | 17        |
| Enabling                                                         | 19        |
| Mobilizing and empowering                                        | 20        |
| Chapter 4 The health promotion strategy analysis model    | 22 |
| Seven strategies for creating supportive environments for health | 23        |
| Policy development                                               | 23        |
| Regulation                                                       | 24        |

CONTENTS

|                                                 |                                                             |    |
|-------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|----|
|                                                 | Reorienting organizations                                   | 24 |
|                                                 | Advocacy                                                    | 24 |
|                                                 | Alliances/awareness                                         | 25 |
|                                                 | Enabling                                                    | 25 |
|                                                 | Mobilizing/empowering                                       | 25 |
|                                                 | Components of implementation in the HELPSAM model           | 26 |
|                                                 | Approaches                                                  | 26 |
|                                                 | Actors                                                      | 26 |
|                                                 | Target groups                                               | 27 |
|                                                 | Levels/arena                                                | 27 |
|                                                 | Procedures and tools                                        | 27 |
|                                                 | Expected outcomes                                           | 27 |
| <hr/>                                           |                                                             |    |
| Part 2. Settings, voices and experiences |                                                             |    |
| <hr/>                                           |                                                             |    |
| Chapter 5                                | The Sundsvall pyramid of supportive environments     | 31 |
| Chapter 6                                | Education                                            | 33 |
|                                                 | Issues and problems                                         | 33 |
|                                                 | Education and a healthy society                             | 34 |
|                                                 | Education and health                                        | 35 |
|                                                 | Education and social change                                 | 35 |
|                                                 | Building a healthy future                                   | 36 |
|                                                 | Opportunities for learning                                  | 36 |
|                                                 | Learning in the formal educational system                   | 37 |
|                                                 | Learning in the community                                   | 37 |
|                                                 | Learning in the family                                      | 41 |
|                                                 | Learning in the workplace                                   | 42 |
|                                                 | Learning through the media                                  | 43 |
|                                                 | Tapping education's potential to create a healthy society   | 44 |
|                                                 | Enhancing cooperation between formal and informal education | 44 |
|                                                 | Increasing access to education                              | 46 |
|                                                 | Supporting continuing education                             | 50 |
|                                                 | Creating healthy education systems                          | 51 |
|                                                 | Reorienting professional training                           | 57 |
|                                                 | Creating a supportive political environment                 | 60 |
|                                                 | Conclusions                                                 | 61 |
| Chapter 7                                | Food and nutrition                                   | 63 |
|                                                 | Issues and problems                                         | 63 |
|                                                 | Food security                                               | 64 |

|                   |                                                      |            |
|-------------------|------------------------------------------------------|------------|
|                   | Food safety                                          | 64         |
|                   | Healthy eating                                       | 64         |
|                   | Activities and solutions                             | 65         |
|                   | Food policy and intersectoral collaboration          | 65         |
|                   | Food shortage — coping with too little               | 69         |
|                   | Supporting healthy food choices                      | 72         |
|                   | Vulnerable groups in nutrition                       | 77         |
|                   | Women's role in food and nutrition matters           | 81         |
|                   | Approaches to better food safety                     | 83         |
|                   | Education for better nutrition                       | 85         |
|                   | Conclusions                                          | 86         |
| Chapter 8  | Home and neighbourhood                        | 88  |
|                   | Issues and problems                                  | 88         |
|                   | Activities and solutions                             | 89         |
|                   | People's initiatives                                 | 90         |
|                   | Healthy cities                                       | 94         |
|                   | Improving housing facilities                         | 98         |
|                   | The immediate surroundings                           | 102        |
|                   | Services in the community                            | 104        |
|                   | Conclusions                                          | 107        |
|                   | Lack of access to land and housing                   | 107        |
|                   | An unhealthy environment                             | 107        |
|                   | Housing hygiene                                      | 108        |
| Chapter 9  | Work                                          | 109 |
|                   | Issues and problems                                  | 109        |
|                   | Issues for action in work and health                 | 111        |
|                   | Activities and solutions                             | 112        |
|                   | Global issues                                        | 113        |
|                   | Social role of work                                  | 115        |
|                   | Healthy workplaces                                   | 117        |
|                   | Work can make you healthy                            | 124        |
|                   | Empowerment issues and organizational change         | 126        |
|                   | Conclusions                                          | 135        |
| Chapter 10 | Transport                                     | 137 |
|                   | Issues and problems                                  | 137        |
|                   | Activities and solutions                             | 139        |
|                   | Policy development                                   | 139        |
|                   | Meeting transport needs                              | 140        |
|                   | Road safety                                          | 141        |
|                   | Congestion, pollution and loss of amenities and land | 146        |
|                   | Conclusions                                          | 149        |

CONTENTS

|                                           |     |
|-------------------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter 11 Social support and care | 151 |
| Issues and problems                       | 151 |
| Activities and solutions                  | 153 |
| Community initiatives                     | 153 |
| Vulnerable groups                         | 155 |
| Women and self-help groups                | 159 |
| Empowering                                | 162 |
| Political commitment, advocacy, alliances | 163 |
| Conclusions                               | 165 |

---

Part 3. Steps for action

---

|                                                                          |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter 12 From analysis to action                                | 169 |
| Obstacles to be overcome                                                 | 169 |
| We can do it!                                                            | 170 |
| The supportive environments action model                                 | 171 |
| Involving men and women                                                  | 175 |
| Chapter 13 Make your own handbook                                 | 176 |
| Share your experiences                                                   | 177 |
| Suggested further reading                                            | 183 |
| Annex 1 List of stories                                                  | 185 |
| Annex 2 Key concepts in community action for health                      | 190 |
| Annex 3 The Sundsvall statement on supportiveenvironments for health | 194 |
| Annex 4 How to establish a national or local database                    | 200 |