List of Contributors . . . . .	VII
Preface by M.R. Dimitrijević, B.A. Kakulas and G. Vrbová . . . . .	IX
Foreword by Sir John Walton . . . . .	XI

Corrective Procedures and Principles of Management

1 Swash, M. (London): Corrective Procedures and Orthotics in Progressive Neuromuscular Diseases. A Neurologist's View . . . . .	2
2 Dickson, J.H. (Houston, Tex.): Pathogenesis and Treatment of Scoliosis in Neuromuscular Diseases . . . . .	11
3 Miller, G.; Kakulas, B.A. (Perth): Management of Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy in Western Australia . . . . .	15

Restorative Possibilities Based on Motor Unit Physiology and Neurocontrol of Posture and Gait

4 Scott, O.M.; Vrbová, G.; Hyde, S.A.; Dubowitz, V. (London): Utilization of Induced Functional Changes in Restorative Procedures . . . . .	30
5 Dimitrijević, M.R. (Houston, Tex.): Neurocontrol of the Upper Motor Neuron and Progressive Neuromuscular Diseases . . . . .	39
6 Dietz, V.; Hollerbach, S.; Berger, W. (Freiburg i.Br.): Functional Stretch Reflex in Neuromuscular Disease . . . . .	53
7 Gregorič, M.; Dimitrijević, M.R.; Krajnik, J.; Oblak, B. (Ljubljana/Houston, Tex.): Neurocontrol of Posture in Progressive Neuromuscular Diseases . . . . .	64
8 Larsson, L.-E. (Linköping): Neurocontrol of Gait in Progressive Neuromuscular Diseases . . . . .	85
9 Grimby, L. (Stockholm): Single Motor Unit Activity during Walking in Patients with Neuromuscular Disorders . . . . .	97

Pathophysiology and Restorative Neurology

10 Henriksson, K.G. (Linköping): Assessment of Muscle Strength and Endurance in Patients with Neuromuscular Diseases . . . . .	108
11 Jones, D.A.; Edwards, R.H.T. (London): Muscle Strength and Metabolism . . . . .	123
12 Hausmanowa-Petrusiewicz, I. (Warsaw): Changes of Motor Units in Neuromuscular Diseases. Electrophysiological Study . . . . .	139

- 13 Kakulas, B. A. (Perth): Restorative Possibilities in Relation to the Pathology of Progressive Neuromuscular Disease . . . . . 152
- 14 Serratrice, G. (Marseille): Computed Tomography of Muscles in Neuromuscular Disease . . . . . 159

Pharmacology and Restorative Neurology

- 15 Lenman, J. A. R. † (Dundee): Pharmacological Approach in the Treatment of Neuromuscular Disease . . . . . 172
- 16 Mayer, R. F.; Koski, C. L.; Max, S. R. (Baltimore, Md.): Restorative Neurology in Myasthenia gravis and Disorders of Peripheral Nerve and Muscle . . . . . 184

Neurobiology and Restorative Neurology

Molecular Genetics, Trophic Factors, Motor Neuron Development and Synaptogenesis

- 17 Harper, P. S.; Thomas, N. S. T.; Shaw, D. J. (Cardiff): Mapping the Genes for Muscular Dystrophy . . . . . 204
- 18 Appel, S. H.; Smith, R. G.; Vaca, K.; McManaman, J. (Houston, Tex.): Trophic Factors and Motor Neuron Development . . . . . 217
- 19 Vrbová, G. (London): Mechanisms Regulating Synapse Reorganisation of Developing Skeletal Muscle Fibres . . . . . 226

Phenotypic Expression of Muscle Fibers

- 20 Stålberg, E.; Hilton-Brown, P.; Rydin, E. (Uppsala): Capacity of the Motor Neuron to Alter Its Peripheral Field . . . . . 237
- 21 Dangain, J.; Vrbová, G. (London): Effect of Electrical Stimulation on Muscle from Dystrophic Mice . . . . . 254
- 22 Pette, D. (Konstanz): Motoneurone Activity and Phenotype Expression of Muscle Fibers . . . . . 265
- 23 Gordon, T.; Stein, R. B.; Thomas, C. (Edmonton, Alta.): Motor Unit Activity following Recovery from Peripheral Nerve Injury . . . . . 276
- 24 Hilton-Brown, P.; Stålberg, E. (Uppsala): Size of Motor Units and Firing Rate in Muscular Dystrophy . . . . . 289

Muscle Development and Maturity

- 25 Fdziańska, A. (Warsaw): An Approach to the Pathogenesis of Some Congenital Myopathies . . . . . 305
- 26 Eccles, J. C. (Göttingen): Chromatolysis of Neurones after Axon Section . . . 318
- 27 Nix, W. A. (Mainz): Maintenance of Muscle Integrity following Denervation . . . 332

Dimitrijević, M. R. (Houston, Tex.); Kakulas, B. A. (Perth); Vrbová, G. (London): Epilogue . . . . . 341
