

CONTENTS

1	The Principles of Diagnosis in Acute Abdominal Disease	1
2	Method of Diagnosis: 1. The History	14
3	Method of Diagnosis: 2. The Examination of the Patient	23
4	Method of Diagnosis: 3. The Grouping of Symptoms	36
5	Appendicitis	47
6	The Differential Diagnosis of Appendicitis	61
7	Perforation of a Gastric or Duodenal Ulcer, and Acute Pancreatitis	78
8	Acute Intestinal Obstruction	94
9	Intussusception	110
10	Acute Obstruction of the Large Intestine	118
11	The Early Diagnosis of Strangulated and Obstructed Hernias	125
12	Acute Abdominal Symptoms due to Vascular Lesions	131
13	Acute Abdominal Symptoms in Pregnancy and the Puerperium	136
14	Early Ectopic Gestation	142
15	Cholecystitis and Other Causes of Acute Pain in the Right Upper Quadrant of the Abdomen	151
16	The Colics	157
17	The Early Diagnosis of Abdominal Injuries	163
18	The Acute Abdomen in the Tropics	170
19	Acute Abdominal Disease with Genito-Urinary Symptoms	178
20	The Diagnosis of Acute Peritonitis	181
21	Diseases which may Simulate the Acute Abdomen	189
	Index	199