PART VII. ABDOMEN

SECTION ONE: THE ABDOMINAL WALL

74 / Disorders of the Umbilicus by Anthony Shaw . . . . .	731
Clinical Embryology . . . . .	731
Umbilical Disease . . . . .	731
The Umbilicus as a Therapeutic Portal . . . . .	737
75 / Omphalocele and Gastrochisis by Samuel R. Schuster . . . . .	740
Embryology of the Abdominal Wall and Small Intestine . . . . .	740
Definitions of Terms and Clinical Observations Related to Developmental Anatomy . . . . .	740
Associated Malformations . . . . .	744
Prenatal Management . . . . .	747
Treatment . . . . .	747
Clinical Experience . . . . .	760
Growth, Development, and Late Morbidity . . . . .	762
76 / Cloacal Exstrophy by Moritz M. Ziegler, John W. Duckett, Charles G. Howell . . . . .	764
Anatomy . . . . .	764
Embryogenesis . . . . .	764
Spectrum of Anomalies . . . . .	765
Treatment . . . . .	766
Results . . . . .	770
77 / Conjoined Twins by Theodore P. Votteler . . . . .	771
Incidence . . . . .	771
Classification . . . . .	772
Prenatal Diagnosis . . . . .	772
Antepartum Findings of Conjoined Twins . . . . .	773
Ethics . . . . .	773
Planned Surgical Separation . . . . .	773
Anesthetic Management . . . . .	774
Thoracopagus . . . . .	774
Omphalopagus . . . . .	775
Pygopagus . . . . .	775
Ischiopagus . . . . .	777
Craniopagus . . . . .	777
78 / Inguinal Hernia by Marc I. Rowe, David A. Lloyd . . . . .	779
Embryogenesis and Pathogenesis . . . . .	779
Incidence . . . . .	780
Clinical Features . . . . .	780
Management . . . . .	781
Complications . . . . .	784
Contralateral Exploration . . . . .	784
Irreducible Hernia (Incarceration and Strangulation) . . . . .	788
Special Considerations . . . . .	790
Congenital Hydrocele . . . . .	791
79 / Undescended Testes by Eric W. Fankalsrud . . . . .	793
Embryology . . . . .	793
Hormonal Influences . . . . .	794
Types of Undescended Testes . . . . .	794
Complications of Cryptorchidism . . . . .	796
Associated Anomalies . . . . .	799
Diagnosis . . . . .	799
Treatment . . . . .	799
Orchiopexy . . . . .	800

SECTION TWO: STOMACH AND DUODENUM

80 / Gastrostomy: Indications and Technique by Bradley M. Rodgers . . . . .	80
Technique . . . . .	80
Complications . . . . .	80
81 / Infantile Hypertrophic Pyloric Stenosis by Clifford D. Benson . . . . .	81
Etiology and Pathology . . . . .	81
Symptoms and Signs . . . . .	81
Operative Treatment . . . . .	81
Nonoperative Treatment . . . . .	81
82 / Peptic Ulcer—Acute and Chronic by Jessie L. Ternberg . . . . .	82
Secondary Peptic Ulcer Disease . . . . .	82
Primary Peptic Ulcer Disease . . . . .	82
83 / Other Conditions of the Stomach by John R. Campbell . . . . .	83
Congenital Gastric Outlet Obstruction . . . . .	83
Incomplete Pyloric-Prepyloric Diaphragm in Infants and Children . . . . .	83
Volvulus of the Stomach . . . . .	83
Gastrointestinal Perforations in the Newborn . . . . .	83
Lact bezoar . . . . .	83
Congenital Microgastria . . . . .	83
84 / Duodenal Atresia, Stenosis and Annular Pancreas by Louise Schauszfer . . . . .	84
Embryology and Pathogenesis . . . . .	84
Pathology . . . . .	84
Location and Incidence . . . . .	84
Associated Anomalies . . . . .	84
Clinical Picture . . . . .	84
Diagnosis . . . . .	84
Management . . . . .	84
Results . . . . .	84

SECTION THREE: THE SMALL INTESTINE

85 / Jejunioileal Atresia and Stenosis by Jay L. Granfeld . . . . .	85
Incidence . . . . .	85
Etiology . . . . .	85
Diagnosis . . . . .	85
Treatment . . . . .	85
Morbidity and Mortality . . . . .	85
86 / Meconium Ileus by David A. Lloyd . . . . .	86
Pathogenesis . . . . .	86
Incidence . . . . .	86
Pathology . . . . .	86
Clinical Features . . . . .	86
Radiologic Features . . . . .	86
Diagnosis of Cystic Fibrosis . . . . .	86
Differential Diagnosis . . . . .	86
Management . . . . .	86
Postoperative Complications . . . . .	86
Operative Results . . . . .	86
Prognosis . . . . .	86
Meconium Ileus Equivalent . . . . .	86
87 / Meckel's Diverticulum by Raymond A. Amoury . . . . .	87
Incidence . . . . .	87
Embryology . . . . .	87
Anatomy and Histology . . . . .	87
Natural History of Meckel's Diverticulum . . . . .	87
Hemorrhage—Clinical Presentation and Diagnosis . . . . .	87
Intestinal Obstruction . . . . .	87
Meckel's Diverticulitis . . . . .	87
Umbilical Abnormalities . . . . .	87
Meckel's Diverticulum and Neoplasms . . . . .	87
Management of Meckel's Diverticulum Found Incidentally . . . . .	87
88 / Intussusception by Mark M. Ravitch . . . . .	88
Incidence . . . . .	88
Nutrition and Previous Health . . . . .	88
Previous Attacks; Spontaneous Reduction . . . . .	88
Examination of the Patient . . . . .	88
Pathogenesis of the Disease and of Its Symptomatology . . . . .	88
Treatment . . . . .	88

89 / Malrotation of the Intestine by E. Ide Smith . . . . .	882
Embryology . . . . .	882
Classification of the Abnormalities of Intestinal Rotation . . . . .	885
Clinical Manifestations . . . . .	886
Radiological Diagnosis of Abnormalities of Rotation . . . . .	889
Treatment . . . . .	889
Postoperative Management and Complications . . . . .	894
Results . . . . .	894
90 / Other Causes of Intestinal Obstruction by Howard C. Filston . . . . .	895
Postoperative Obstruction Due to Adhesions . . . . .	895
Less Common Causes of Intestinal Obstruction . . . . .	898
 SECTION FOUR: GENERAL
91 / Gastrointestinal Endoscopy by Stephen L. Gans . . . . .	901
Gastroduodenoscopy . . . . .	901
Endoscopic Retrograde Cholangiopancreatography . . . . .	902
Colonoscopy . . . . .	902
Intraoperative Endoscopy . . . . .	903
92 / Gastrointestinal Bleeding by Robert M. Arensman . . . . .	904
Neonates . . . . .	904
Infants 1 Month to 1 Year of Age . . . . .	905
Infants 1 Year to 2 Years of Age . . . . .	905
Children Older Than 2 Years . . . . .	905
93 / Foreign Bodies and Bezoars by Diller B. Groff III . . . . .	907
Diagnosis . . . . .	907
Treatment . . . . .	907
Alkaline Disk Batteries . . . . .	908
Bezoars . . . . .	908
Summary . . . . .	911
94 / Duplications of the Gastrointestinal Tract by Mark M. Ravitch . . . . .	911
Embryology . . . . .	911
Symptoms and Diagnosis . . . . .	913
Duplications of the Stomach . . . . .	914
Duplications of the Duodenum . . . . .	915
Duplications of the Small Intestine . . . . .	915
Duplications of the Colon . . . . .	918
Complete Duplication of the Colon, With Duplication of the External Genitalia and Lower Urinary Tract . . . . .	919
95 / Mesenteric and Omental Cysts by Arnold H. Colodny . . . . .	921
Etiology . . . . .	921
Clinical Features . . . . .	921
Radiologic Findings . . . . .	921
Location of Cysts . . . . .	923
Treatment . . . . .	923
Morbidity and Mortality . . . . .	924
Pathologic Features . . . . .	924
96 / Ascites by Peter K. Kottmeier . . . . .	925
Diagnosis . . . . .	925
Fetal Ascites . . . . .	925
Chylous Ascites . . . . .	925
Pancreatic Ascites . . . . .	927
Biliary Ascites . . . . .	927
Urinary Ascites . . . . .	927
Ovarian Ascites . . . . .	928
97 / Meconium Peritonitis by Eugene S. Wiener . . . . .	929
Etiology . . . . .	929
Pathology . . . . .	929
Clinical Presentation . . . . .	929
Indications for Operation . . . . .	930
Operation . . . . .	931
Results . . . . .	931
98 / Polypoid Diseases of the Gastrointestinal Tract by Thomas V. Santulli, John N. Schullinger . . . . .	932
Juvenile Polyps . . . . .	932
Intestinal Polyposis Associated With Mucocutaneous Pigmentation (Peutz-Jeghers Syndrome) . . . . .	935
Adenomatous Polyps . . . . .	938
Familial Adenomatous Polyposis . . . . .	939
Unusual Polyp Syndromes of the Gastrointestinal Tract . . . . .	940

Miscellaneous Polypoid Diseases . . . . .	9
Colonoscopy . . . . .	9
99 / Necrotizing Enterocolitis by Marc I. Rowe . . . . .	9
Incidence . . . . .	9
Pathogenesis . . . . .	9
Age and Maturity . . . . .	9
Feedings . . . . .	9
Reduced Mucosal Blood Flow . . . . .	9
Hyperosmolar Formulas and Medications . . . . .	9

100 / Crohn's Disease by Robert L. Telander . . . . .	9
Etiology . . . . .	9
Pathology . . . . .	9
Clinical Aspects . . . . .	9
Surgical Therapy . . . . .	9
Prognosis . . . . .	9
101 / Ulcerative Colitis by Lester W. Martin . . . . .	9
Etiology . . . . .	9
Pathology . . . . .	9
Clinical Manifestations . . . . .	9
Indications for Operation . . . . .	9
Surgical Treatment . . . . .	9
Summary . . . . .	9
102 / Primary Peritonitis by Sigmund H. Ein . . . . .	9
Etiology . . . . .	9
Clinical Picture . . . . .	9
Operation . . . . .	9
Bacteriology . . . . .	9
Results . . . . .	9
103 / Ileostomy and Colostomy by Harry C. Bishop . . . . .	9
Indications for Enterostomies . . . . .	9
Types and Techniques of Small- and Large-Bowel Enterostomies . . . . .	9
Abdominal Sites for Enterostomies . . . . .	9
Care of Abdominal Enterostomies . . . . .	9
Closure of Enterostomies . . . . .	9
Complications of Abdominal Stomas . . . . .	9

SECTION FIVE: THE COLON

104 / Atresia, Stenosis, and Other Obstructions of the Colon by Arvin I. Philippart . . . . .	9
Colonic Atresia . . . . .	9
Dysmotility States . . . . .	9
Neurofibromatosis . . . . .	9
Miscellaneous Lesions . . . . .	9
105 / Appendicitis by Peter K. Kattmeier . . . . .	9
Incidence . . . . .	9
Etiology . . . . .	9
Diagnosis . . . . .	9
Physical Examination . . . . .	9
Appendicitis in Preschool Children . . . . .	9
