

Contents

Preface	5
<hr/>
1. The concept of tuberculosis control as an integral part of the health services	7
<hr/>
2. The tuberculosis problem: magnitude and trends	11
<hr/>
3. BCG vaccination and chemoprophylaxis	14
<hr/>
4. Case-finding and treatment	16
<hr/>
5. Organization of sputum smear examination	19
<hr/>
6. Chemotherapeutic regimens	22
Short-course versus long-course regimens	22
Continuous versus intermittent regimens	24
Hospitalization versus ambulatory treatment	24
Bacteriological failure and relapse	25
<hr/>
7. Integration of tuberculosis control into primary health care	27
Structure and management	27
Tuberculosis control activities at district level	30
Links with other programmes	33
<hr/>
8. Problems encountered in the process of integration	35
Problems with the concept of integration	35
Problems encountered in practice	36
<hr/>

9. Health systems research	39
10. External collaboration	41
Annex WHO consultation on tuberculosis control as an integral part of primary health care ..	45