

Contents

Preface.....	5
1. Introduction.....	7
<hr/>
2. Treatment of xerophthalmia.....	8
Children under 6 years old.....	8
Children aged 6 years or over, adolescents, and adults.....	9
Women of reproductive age, pregnant or not.....	9
<hr/>
3. Prevention of vitamin A deficiency, xerophthalmia, and nutritional blindness in children.....	10
Rationale.....	10
Safety.....	10
Disease-targeted distribution.....	10
Universal distribution.....	11
<hr/>
4. Operational matters.....	13
Vitamin A preparations.....	13
Logistics.....	14
Training.....	17
Monitoring and evaluation.....	18
<hr/>
Selected bibliography.....	19
Annex 1. Participants in the WHO/UNICEF/IVACG Task Force.....	21
Annex 2. Countries categorized by degree of public health significance of vitamin A deficiency, xerophthalmia, and nutritional blindness.....	22
Annex 3. Data on the stability of commonly supplied vitamin A preparations.....	24